Nonresident Alien Employees
Canada

Note: If you are a nonresident alien employee from the country listed above, and would like to claim treaty benefits, please complete this attachment in addition to Form 8233.

I was a resident of Canada on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a U.S. citizen.
I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I have accepted an invitation by _____ [insert the name of the university, college, school, or other similar educational institution] to come to the United States solely for the purpose of teaching or engaging in research at that educational institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities.

Article XV of the U.S. - Canada Tax Treaty provides that total annual wages of $10,000 earned by a Canadian resident in the U.S.A. paid by a U.S. employer will not be taxed by the U.S.A. However, if the Canadian resident's total annual wages earned in the U.S.A. exceed $10,000, then the U.S.A. will tax the entire annual wages, including the first $10,000.
